Free to Farmers.
To any farmer who will write us, mentioning
this paper, we will send free of charge, postpaid, several formulas for making a
first-class fertilizer at home, together
with the cost of the ingredients, directions for mixing, etc.

The Vermont Experiment Station in its bulletin No. 116 has the following to say with reference to the value of home-made fertilizers as compared with the ordinary commercial brands: "On every account, however—financial, educational, agricultural—it is better to buy the crude stock and home mix if one uses a ton or more."

Every up-to-date farmer should be interested in the subject of home-made fertilizers and we are in position to help them. Address Carroll S. Page, Hyde Park, Vt.

will also furnish tags, advice sheets,
taking off directions, cloth posters to enable you to advertise the business, etc., etc.

We pay highest cash prices and keep our customers thoroughly posted on the condition of the market and pay the freight.

To any one writing us and mentioning
this paper we will mail full particulars.
Address Carroll S. Page, Hyde
Park, Vt.

ABOUT THE STATE.

Items of Interest Gleaned From Our Exchanges.

James Lowrey, the Bennington man who was taken to North Adams hospital on the 16th of February with his hands and feet badly frozen, died on Monday. In an effort to save the man's life one foot had been amputated. Lowrey was 43 years of age.

B. H. Hill, assistant curator of classical antiquities at the Boston Museum of Fine Arts has been elected director of the American School at Athens, Greece, to succeed the late Doctor Hierman. Mr. Hill was graduated from the University of Vermont, Burlington and Columbia, as three years a student at Athens, and held a fellowship there for two years.

Orlando Wooster, who died at his home in Rutland recently, and who was associated with the Rutland railroad under its various titles, for fifty-four consecutive years, was a member of the engineering corps which built the road in 1850 and under the management of Jay Gould was made stockholder of the road in 1863, filling that position for thirty-nine years.

Dr. John A. Mead of Rutland, head of the Howe scale works has returned from a trip to San Francisco where he went to appoint a new manager of the Howe scale company's plant in that city. In place of Mr. Page, son of Col. S. Page, who died suddenly a few weeks ago. Dr. Mead, who owned the Mead building which burned in the fire at Rutland says that he will erect a new building on the site of the one that was burned as soon as practicable.

Lyman Howe's Pictures.

In addition to the superb program of moving pictures already advertised for the Lyman H. Howe Co. at the opera house, Monday evening, March 12th, Mr. Howe will present one of the grandest collections of sensational fire scenes ever produced, showing scenes in the life of a New York fireman, dashing fire run, hair breadth escapes, actual burning of an entire city block, and a realistic midnight fire, also story of a New York fireman, the founding discovered by a New York policeman, ten years after the escape from the charity institution, the newsboy's life on the streets, the saving of a city man's residence from burglars, capture of the burglars, the adoption of the newsboy by the grateful citizen. A story full of heart interest, humor and pathos.

The entire program the most realistic production of sight and sound possible to modern science and art, surpassing all previous productions given by Mr. Howe. Tickets Friday morning.

The Cheerup School of Poetry.
It's not for me to criticize; it's not for me to knock.
A poem as refreshing as "The Fiddler in the Street."

For who am I that I should dare to criticize a poem?
So likely to endure the chill, corroding blasts of Time?

My quarrel's not with Riley—I think that he is great—
But with the birds that feebly try his work to imitate.

And think they have a masterpiece if it should but contain
Some platitudinous commonplace and obvious refrain.

The Cheerup School of Poetry is open night and day,
Its principles and principals are but to make you say.

With "Keopha-Smiley" verses written by those of olden hand,
Whose bargain rate is just about one-forty-nine a yard.

"When Sunshine is a-Sneezing" What's the Use of Mope and Fret?
"The Things We Don't Remember" Are the Things We Just Forget."

"We Wouldn't Have No Rainbow if We Didn't Have No Rain,"
Or any other commonplace and obvious refrain.

Parnassus is macadamized; they've paved the road to Rome.
Jump on a rented Pegasus—you'll find him very tame.

"The Man Who Never Worries Is the Man Who Gets Along,"
"When Trouble Comes to Bother You Just Sing a Little Song."

"The Man Who Likes You Huckle Is the Man Who Just Ahead,"
"The People Who Are Living Ain't the People Who Are Dead."

O bardlets of the magazines a word of warning plain
To ye that write the commonplace and obvious refrain!

Obvious! REFRAIN!
—The Reader Magazine.

Labor Unions Growing.
"Under the improved conditions of business labor organizations in New York are regaining their strength, which had in a degree declined during the depression of 1903-04. Between April 1 and Oct. 1 their aggregate membership increased from 374,282 to 382,201, a gain of 7,919 or slightly more than 2 per cent. New York city unions gained 3,299 or 2.2 per cent. Rochester 1,891 or 1.48 per cent. Schenectady 404 or 7.6 per cent. while Buffalo, Syracuse, Albany and Troy sustained losses ranging from 3 per cent to 5.6 per cent. Nearly one-third of the state's increase was in the smaller and industrial centers not included in the foregoing list, many new unions having been formed this year in places like Plattsburg, Kingston and Salamanca.—New York Labor Bureau Report.

Missouri Labor Statistics.
During 1905 there were 119 strikes and lockouts in Missouri. Of these sixty-three were settled satisfactorily, nine were compromised and twenty-one were lost. The total number of persons involved in strikes was 8,988, and the total amount expended by organizations in support of strikes was $110,827. The report estimates the total amount of wages lost to members through strikes as $250,101. During the year sixty unions appealed for arbitration in disputes with employers, the full sixty being settled in that manner.—Report State Bureau of Labor.

Ancient Razors.
Many razors have been found in the ruins of Pompeii. They are of different shapes, some resembling knives, others being not unlike the razors of the present day. The barber shops of antiquity were also provided with bottles of perfume and boxes of pomatum.

Scenting the Violet.

San Francisco violets are lacking in that rare quality of perfume found in the flowers locally grown but when sold by the street peddler the odor is discernible for almost a block. An atomizer charged with the essence of violets, a squeeze on the bulb by the wily Italian and it is done. Here is the whole secret and it remains only for the woman who can resist the dove's but not the perfume to deposit the required sum in the flower merchant's outstretched palm and carry her purchase off in triumph.

Watch the Los Angeles vander of violets on any street corner. With a glance about him to see that no prospective customer is near enough to take cognizance of his movements, he sprays the bunch of violets with perfume. As the possible customer passes, Mr. Violets Vender twitches the bunch of flowers as near as it is possible to the nostrils of the passerby. If that person darts in the perfume, many but not the perfume to deposit the required sum in the flower merchant's outstretched palm and carry her purchase off in triumph.

Most of the violets sold on the streets come from the north and, either from the locality in which they are grown or from the refrigeration used in transportation, lack in perfume. Street vendors, however, quickly find the local florists had the advantage in this hence the subtlety.—Los Angeles Express.

His Art.
"I wouldn't call Dabson an artist. The pictures he paints are frights."
"But you ought to see how easily he homeswags people into buying them. He's certainly an artist."—Kansas City Times.

A Scientific Wonder.
The cures that stand to its credit make Bucklen's Arnica Salve a scientific wonder. It cures E. R. Mulford, lecturer for the Patrons of Husbandry, Waynesboro, Pa., of a distressing case of piles. It heals the worst burns, sores, boils, ulcers, cuts, wounds, chilblains and salt rheum. Only 25c at the Red Cross Pharmacy.

We Recommend
Liz-All-Gray's warranted Laxative Cough and Cold cure—because it contains No Morphine or other Habit Forming Drug, but does contain the best ingredients known to medical science for Coughs and Colds, and will pay back your money if not satisfactory.

SOFTNESS OF SEALSKIN.

Sealskin is admired the world over for its softness and glossiness; and yet the human hair is equally as soft and glossy when healthy; and the radical cause of all hair trouble is dandruff, which is caused by a parasitic parasite that saps the vitality of the hair. The scalp is the seat of the dandruff germ. Without dandruff there is no falling hair, but a luxuriant growth of glossy, soft hair is certain. Scouring the scalp won't cure dandruff. Kill the dandruff germ. Thousands of women owe their beautiful suits of hair to Newbro's Hairdressing. Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c in stamps to The Hairdressing Co., Detroit, Mich.
